Fall Classes Begin NEXT SUNDAY, September 12

Adult classes will be divided by age groups and will meet in the auditorium, multipurpose room, and in classrooms at the southwest corner of the auditorium. The 20's class will be taught by Russ White and David Walker, 30's will be taught by Keith Brooks, Brent Smith, and Ron Cook, 40's will be taught by Scott Philbrick and Tom King, 50's will be taught by Phil Goad and Brad Dell, and mature adults will be taught by David Virden and Tom Walker.

Children in grades K-6 will continue to meet in the Nichols Building and will remain in the same age group classes they have been in for the summer. Teachers this quarter include Steffanie Ehorn (kindergarten), Michelle Cook (1/2nd grade), Tracy Williams (3/4th grade), Sid and Beth Moore (5/6th grade). Gerald and Angela Driskill will lead the large group teaching time as well. We're excited about the fall!

Parental Supervision Needed

We will be leaving the north half of the gym set up all the time for children's classes on Sunday morning. Please help us keep the area in good shape by making sure your kids stay out of the area after worship and play only in the south end of the gym.

Community Bible Study

Community Bible Study will begin in early September studying the gospel of LUKE. Wednesday morning classes are available for women, and as well as Tuesday night classes including men. Children's classes are available but space is limited. Go to communitybiblestudy.org or see MaryLee Dell for information.

Dodd Elementary "Assignment" Completed

Outside, we spread mulch and planted fall bedding flowers. Inside, we painted. We brushed on white, yellow, and black; We rolled on dark blue, light blue, and red. By one count, Thirty-nine adults, teens, and children from LRC came out on a recent Saturday to complete another "school assignment"

It's all a part of LRC's effort to be an adopter for the nearby David O. Dodd Elementary, an initiative encouraged by Mike Cagle, formerly LRC's associate minister, who recently moved to Nashville, TN.

"Working with Dodd Elementary," one congregational leader said, "is just another way LRC seeks to be a good neighbor. We want local school leaders to know we support their valuable contributions and we want to be a blessing to area children and their families. It's an expression of the heart of Christ."
